WEEKEND MESSAGE NOTES

WELCOME TO SOUTHEAST

Southeast provides relational environments where you can find
Jesus, community, and purpose.

GET CONNECTED

God created us for community. If you are interested in serving, participating in a life group, or would like more information about an upcoming event, visit southeastcc.org or send an email to connect@southeastcc.org.

NEED PRAYER?

We are honored to pray with you or for you. Join us after services to pray with someone at southeastcc.org. You may also submit a prayer request at southeastcc.org/prayer.

TRADITIONS - COMMUNION (PART 2)

NOTES | 4.25.21

John 13:34 New International Version 1984 (NIV 1984)

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

Acts 2:42 | NIV 1984

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

Acts 2:45-47 | NIV 1984

Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Acts 20:7-12 | NIV 1984

On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight. There were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were meeting. Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third story and was picked up dead. Paul went down, threw himself on the young man and put his arms around him. "Don't be alarmed," he said. "He's alive!" Then he went upstairs again and broke bread and ate. After talking until daylight, he left. The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.

Question #1 – What do we call this rite?

Question #2 – What does this rite do? Why are we celebrating this rite regularly?

Question #3 – How does the Eucharist transmit Sacramental grace to us?

IMPLICATIONS

- 1. We have been given a sacred responsibility to discern truth from scripture.
- 2. Communion is about us coming together as a spiritual family and recommitting to one another.
- 3. Communion is about us coming together as a spiritual family and recommitting to our Father.
- 4. Communion is the weekly affirmation that we have peace with God through the act this sacred rite represents.
