HEAVEN ON EARTH - OUR DAILY BREAD

NOTES | 9.12.21

Matthew 6:9-13 English Standard Version (ESV)

Pray then like this:

“Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts,

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

Deuteronomy 8:1-6 | ESV

“The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the Lord swore to give to your fathers. And you shall remember the whole way that the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the Lord your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the Lord your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him.

Matthew 4:1-4 | ESV

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” But he answered,

“It is written,

“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.”

IMPLICATIONS

- 1. God wants his people to have ears to hear.
- 2. “Our daily bread” teaches us that God is the provider of just enough.
- 3. Learning to connect with God daily allows us to trust him more.
- 4. When we orient our lives toward trusting God, we see him for who he really is. And others see him through us as well.
